MEADOWS

Independent Living Your Way

"I'm very happy. The people here are wonderful. It means a lot just knowing you can go out the door and say, 'Good Morning!' to people you recognize."

"I loved Rochester. I thought I would end up here," says Jean, a resident of Briarwood at St. John's Meadows. At 83, she's returned to her roots having moved back to Rochester from Glens Falls, NY, and is settling in to her new lifestyle.

Jean grew up on Hollenbeck Street, off Avenue D. Shortly out of high school, she met her husband, Leonard, at a dance in 1949 held at Temple B'rith Kodesh. After they married, he convinced her to move to Glens Falls, his hometown, where they raised two sons, Richard and David.

After Leonard's passing, her son David suggested she move back to Rochester. Jean had never heard of St. John's Meadows, but took his advice when he said, "this is where you should be." David visits her frequently, along with his two teenage daughters.

Jean enjoys the convenient location of her apartment and its proximity to the Briarwood Dining Room, chair exercise classes, bridge club, book club, and bingo.

"Now I've come full circle," she says.
